Ooma Office

The best business phone system for the professional services industry.

Whether you run an advertising agency, a business consultancy, or an architecture firm, you need to be responsive and accessible to your clients – when you are in the office, visiting a site, or working at a photo shoot. You need a sophisticated, yet simple and affordable phone system that helps you manage calls quickly and easily, so you’ll never miss an opportunity or a voicemail again.

Ooma Office, the #1 rated business phone service, provides the best value for the professional services industry.

- ✓ 24 x 7 Virtual Receptionist directs calls, provides helpful information.

When you are meeting with clients or it’s after business hours, Ooma’s virtual receptionist greets callers and provides information that answers common questions. Callers can easily be routed to the right department or staff member in multiple locations. You can build menu options such as: Press 1 for business hours, Press 2 for the directory, Press 3 to connect to the receptionist. The system is flexible to fit your needs.

- ✓ Never miss a business call when in or out of your office.

Consultants and service professionals frequently travel between client offices and their own. With Ooma’s mobile app, you can receive or return calls on your smart phone using your business number without using your personal number. If you need to leave your office while continuing a conversation, Ooma’s call flip feature instantly switches the active call from your desktop phone to your smart phone without missing a beat.

- ✓ Free toll-free and local numbers

Eliminate long distance charges on calls between office or clinic locations and provide a free 800 number for your back office and billing department.

Eptek Engineering Solutions

“ It was straightforward. Customer service was readily available to answer one question we had with setting up a conference line. We were up and running the same day with 20+ phones. ”

– Matt

Iron Horse Online

“ I switched from Verizon. Ooma is easier to deal with and gives me the features they had in their buggy and slow business voice application. I saved money, too! ”

– Tony
